EQUAL TO THE EMERGENCY.

From Harper's Bazaar.
Yes, doctor, if a baby girl
Should bless my wedded state,
I will not call her Poi or Sal,
No, nothing else but Kate.

My sainted aunt was called the same;
My love for it is great;
Yes, doctor, that must be her name,
She shall be christened Kate.

What! Twain! Good gracious, how they squall!
Doctor, bemoan my fate—
Both girls? Well, well, I still can call
Them Kate, and Daphn-Kate.

NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A St. Louis mule tried to kick an engine off the track, and seemed surprised that it didn't budge.

Mr. Whitelaw of Brownville, Neb., told his daughter not to go to a party with Mr. Bradley, and when he saw her disobediently getting into a wagon to start, he threw a heavy stone at Mr. Bradley, injuring him so that he died.

A pretentious traveler, who said he was Lord Loftus, but didn't clearly prove it, turned up in Kansas City. He had been buffalo hunting on the plains, and was disposed to vary his diversions with some wild life in a western city. He got the money on a draft from England for $2,000, spent most of it in a week's carousal, and finally was fined $10 for drunkenness.

Chicago has a mystery. Mrs. Gale lies ill of a nervous disorder, and much of the time is in a trance state. Loud raps are frequently heard around her bed, and the noise throws her into severe convulsions. Reporters are at work to discover fraud, but thus far without success. They suspect the woman of deception, but have not been able to catch her at it.

Mrs. Etheridge's boy walked on stilts in front of Gray's grocery, at Dallas, Texas. This annoyed Gray, and he whipped the boy. Mrs. Etheridge sent her son back, and posted herself, pistol in hand, to protect him in his diversion. Gray got a big club and went out to combat the woman. He received a bullet wound in his head, and she was carried home dangerously wounded. But the boy still walks on his stilts.

A young man at Lodi, Tenn., not otherwise particular about his dress, developed a strange concern as to neckties. He bought them by the dozen, spent hour after hour selecting them, and chose the brightest colors. The man grew upon him until at length there was no reason to doubt his insanity upon that point. He spent all his time and money in procuring and displaying ties of odd kinds, and was finally sent to an asylum.

A drunkard at Battle Hill, Kansas, resolved to reform or die. Putting some deadly poison into a glass with whiskey, he locked himself into a room with the mixture. His plan was to conquer his craving for alcohol if possible, and if his appetite overpowered him, kill himself with the drink that satisfied it. He was alone with the poison for six hours, and then he drank it; His life was saved, however by the timely efforts of a physician, and he was sent to an asylum for inebriates.

The Haphazard of Life.

From the New York Tribune.

The haphazard of life and death was illustrated in many ways by the Tay Bridge calamity. One lady who traveled with her maid, had ordered a cab for the morning train, which reached its destination in safety, but the cabman overstepped, and they were obliged to take the next train—the one which was buried in the quicksands at the bottom of the river. Another instance of train-missing turned out more happily. A gentleman was determined to go to Dundee, notwithstanding his wife's entreaties, and that prudent lady took pains to have the cabman behind him, so that her husband missed the ill-fated train. He was angry at the time, but is reconciled to the situation now, and entertains a favorable opinion of his wife's weather wisdom. Another man lost his life through the business shrewdness of the girl to whom he was engaged. He was visiting at her house in Edinburgh, and was anxious to remain until Monday, but she persuaded him to return rather than incur the displeasure of his employers by breaking faith with them.

Drugs and Patent Medicines

Of every description sold cheap by John F. Myers, two doors below the post-office.

Charley, I am in trouble, I broke Emma's fan the other night at the party. Good enough. If you want to surprise her most agreeably get her one of those lovely fans at Sol. Levy's.

If you want your watch put in good order take it to Goegele.

"Bless her diamond eyes." This expression is often used in praise of the bright eyes of the dear girls. But if you want the genuine brilliants, you must go to Goegele's, on Virginia Street.

Success.

The greatest success of the season. The great Clearance sale of Diamonds, Clocks, Jewels and all kinds of dry and fancy goods at prices never heard of in Reno, at A. Straussburg & Co's.

If you want to see elegant jewelry and Diamonds go to Goegele's. He is selling his goods! Not at all; because he is satisfied with only small gains.

MINING DEBRIE.

One of the most important economic topics in California is the mining debris question. The work of the hydraulic miner has filled up the river beds with detritus, causing an annual overflow in many localities, which results in a deposit of silt on farming land, to the frequent great injury to the growing crops. Much land has been made useless for present cultivation by reason of this deposit.

State Engineer Hall has just made a report upon the debris question. In reference to the filling in of the rivers he says that the low water plane of some of them has been raised as follows: "Sacramento river—Head of Grand Island, 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 feet; Sacramento, 5 to 5 1/2 feet; mouth of Feather, 3 to 4 feet; Knight's Landing, 1 to 1 1/2 feet. Feather river—Nicolais, 8 to 4 feet; mouth of Yuba, 13 to 15 feet; Oroville, 4 to 6 feet. It is known, that in front of the City of Sacramento, and for nearly two miles of the length of the channel, the average filling has been to a depth of 15.2 feet and the maximum about 25 feet, since 1854, when a survey was made under the direction of the Town Council by the city surveyor."

The report points out that the rivers are annually becoming less capable of adequate drainage; that the lower portion of the Sacramento river may soon be so much obstructed as to affect navigation; that the great evil is the flow of sand from mining canyons, and that the first effort should be to keep these sands from escaping into the rivers, when they would naturally clear themselves of sediment and wear away deep channels for themselves in time.

COMMENDATION FROM CARSON.

The Carson Appeal of Wednesday had a sensible article, on the "duties of a newspaper," from which we make the following extracts:

"The GAZETTE, in its issue of Monday, made an excellent lesson on what the public have a right to expect from a good newspaper. There is a divorce tank in progress in Reno. The GAZETTE, mindful of the duties of its patrons, reports this trial, and Lake and his friends raise a howl against the newspaper. A paper that makes a habit of suppressing news in the interest of favored parties, is swindling its subscribers, just as much as a grocer who sells eleven ounces of butter for a pound. A man who wishes to avoid press notoriety, can always do so by behaving himself like a gentleman, and keeping out of the courts. If a newspaper cannot give the news, it should suspend publication and run a job office, devoted to poster and programme printing."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The delegation of wicked Utes in Washington have had a long pow-wow with Schurz, and have agreed that the Ute of Southern Colorado shall "go west" to the border of Utah, the White River Utes to be removed to Uintah reservation, in Utah. This arrangement will not be entirely satisfactory to the white population of Colorado, who want no Indians in the borders of their state. Ouray has promised to give up the murderers of Meeker, "in the spring," dead or alive.

At a sleep party at Silver City the other evening, some of the young ladies were too bashful to ask gentlemen to dance. The unhappy wall-flowers were obliged to exhibit a sheet of paper bearing this inscription: "We don't bite." Encouraged by this assurance, the ladies lost their timidity and soon became as gallant as the gentlemen could desire.

Old Winnemucca and other Putes in "Washington" have made an agreement with Schurz which is entirely satisfactory to themselves. Its terms provide that old Winnemucca may return to the Malheur reservation in Oregon with the following conditions: that she take up her abode, by families; and that the Putes now earning their own living in the white settlements may remain where they are.

It is announced that the Central Pacific Railroad Company has still another new time card in preparation, to go into effect, it is said, next Sunday. It affects the division between San Francisco and Sacramento. Instead of two passenger trains, as at present, three will hereafter be run daily between those cities.

The Ku Klux Klan bill, for the liberation of slaves in Cuba, has become a law, with penalties for the kidnapping of the Cuban slaves by thirds in successive years. They will be held in an eight years apprenticeship, subsequent to liberation. The act also provides severe penalties for vagabondage.

The Eureka Republicans ask the State Central committee to call a State Convention for the purpose of electing delegates to the National Republican Convention. This plan would give the people of the state a voice in the choice of the Presidential candidate, and should be adopted.

Tom Clarke went up to Virginia yesterday, but up to last evening none of the men who assaulted him last Sunday had been arrested. It is probable that some action has been taken in the matter to-day.

The bursting of the Lady Bryan bubble has crippled many speculators in Virginia, and elsewhere. The question now is, who salted those drill holes?

The Stock Report derisively refers to Truckee as a "berg," in allusion to the temperature which there prevails.

The Suto Independent has commenced its sixth volume, and continues prosperous.

By April 1st trains will be running from Santa Cruz to Alameda.

There is talk of building a hundred-thousand dollar hotel at Alum Rock, near San Jose.

At Darwin, Inyo county, on January 12th, Chris. Norwood accidentally killed himself with a shotgun.

The trail from Scott's bar, Siskiyou valley, to Happy Camp, has been reopened through eight feet of snow.

Female pedestrians may go to Nevada City next week. A six-days' walk begins there on Monday.

Many cattle will be unable to weather the snow now lying over the country about Puget Sound, W. T.

Wallula horses have been frozen to death on the John-Day river this winter.

For two miles between the Mountain House and Downville, the road is full to the top of the cut. The oldest inhabitant never witnessed deeper and broader snow drifts.

Several parties arrived at Marysville on Tuesday last from New Hampshire, they being the advance guard of a colony about to settle at Anderson, on the line of the Oregon division of the Central Pacific railroad.

In Siskiyou county, on Scott mountain the snow is ten feet deep on a level, and all the way up and down through Trinity valley there are innumerable drifts from fifteen to thirty feet deep.

Says the Shasta county Record: The gale last Friday was very heavy, and in exposed places did considerable damage. On Stillwater plain it exerted its full force. The residence of John Reed, situated thereon, was lifted up and carried forty feet, but no damage was done. Huge trees, three and four feet in diameter, were broken off like twigs, and others uprooted.

The Word "Soudont." Which has already become a household word, is derived from the Greek, and is composed of two words, Soud and Ontes. "Soud" translated, means to preserve, and "Ontes" the teeth—"SOZODONT" a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name. It beautifies and preserves the teeth, hardens and invigorates the gums, and corrects all impurities of the breath. The odor of this pure preparation is so delightful that it is a luxury to apply it. It is as harmless as water, sold by druggists and perfumers. Jan 5 o d 1 m o d w

JOTTINGS.

The assessment on Trojan is delinquent.
—The Good Templars' neck-tie party takes place this evening.
—The funeral of the infant child of G. and Alice Chism took place this afternoon.
—Lady Bryan was down to 25 cents this morning. Quite a drop from $3.80.
—No victims of the salting operation in the Lady Bryan have been heard to squeal in Reno yet.
—Prof. Kaufmann advertises his readiness to provide music for social occasions.
—The Silver State Minstrels have decided to give another concert about the latter part of next month.
—The County Commissioners will meet Monday afternoon. No action has yet been taken in regard to the proposed sewer tax.
—There has been no arrest for weeks. Nothing of general interest has transpired in the Justice's court this year.
—Mark Parish suspected that a defect existed in one of the chimneys of his new house, and on taking down the upper portion of it this morning the fault was found.
—The Pivates are enjoying the mild, calm weather. On these sunny afternoons one can find two or three open air poker games in full blast.
—A handsome and stylish young lady walked down Commercial Row last evening, smoking a cigar. She would have looked just as well without it.
—The fisherman says that the trout stay down at Wadsworth because there is so much sawdust running in the river. Certainly any trout trying to swim up here now, would be filled up to the gills with sawdust, in short order.
—Tom Clarke says he intends to run his engine on the V. & T. road as long as he wants to and the company will employ him, Mechanics' Union or no Mechanics' Union. He has been an engineer for ten years and is a member of Brotherhood No. 110 of Locomotive Engineers, of Sacramento.

A BAD BIGAMIST.

A Recreant Husband Neglects his Wife For Eleven Years—Then Marries Another Woman—The Neglected Wife's Story Told in Letters.

The first of the following letters came addressed to the "Superintendent of Police," Reno, Nevada. It was answered by Sheriff Walker, who informed the enquirer that her husband was then living in Reno, and had married a young woman of a neighboring town. About the time the second letter was received, the wicked bigamist left Reno, but is still living in Nevada. No action could be taken in the matter by the authorities here, because the man's lawful wife failed to appear against him. The letters explain themselves:

Boston, March 25, '79.—DEAR SIR: Excuse the liberty I take in addressing you, but I trust my cause will be a sufficient excuse for me in your eyes. I write you in hopes you will be able to send me some information of my husband, who when last I heard from him was in Reno; but his little daughter wrote him last summer, and there was not the least notice taken of it, whereas in my opinion if it had not been called for it would have been returned to us through the dead letter office. Once again I wrote him three weeks ago, and as yet have not been answered, although he has had a week's grace. I would not trouble you, Sir, but his neglect and unkindness have gone too far, and I see no hope before me. I have LIVED ON HOPE for the last eleven years, and I see no prospect of anything for the better occurring, and I do not consider it right (provided he is alive) or just that he should be allowed to be so utterly callous any longer. But again, you can't compel a person to do right unless they really wish to, but it will relieve my feelings a great deal to know just how it is with him, whether prosperous or otherwise; and, Sir, if you could trace his whereabouts you will have my thanks and blessing.

—is his proper name, but when he had been out West awhile he wrote his name —. He is 34 years old, of dark complexion, and has at the side of one of his eyes a scar, the effect of a burn received when young. I have

NOT SEEN HIM FOR 11 YEARS, and of course that time makes a great difference in his appearance. We were married Aug. 11, 1867, and our little girl was baptized June 16, 1868, in the same apartment we were married in, in the Episcopal residence on Washington street. It is too hard when it comes to this, but I think it is better to know either the good or bad end suspense, and I think you will agree with me. My husband went away in 1868, and I heard from him at irregular intervals for a little over a year, and then he stopped writing. The next I heard of him was that he had joined the army. He did not tell me but I wrote to the War Dept., so found out, but when they reduced the army he was discharged. I next heard from him in '73, he was

THEN IN GOLD HILL. He employed a friend to write for him to me, to break the ice, as it were. It seems that friend's influence was good, as he sent me help at two different times in that year, and then again ceased all notice of us. Of course it did not matter to him what kind of an existence we dragged on. In 1877, in desperation, I wrote him as to what his intentions were, and what he meant to do, and oh, such a cruel, unfeeling reply I got! I might do as I please! when, as intelligent people all know, a woman that means to do right CANNOT DO AS SHE PLEASES. Dear Sir, I would not bother you with such a long letter, but that you might see how terribly he has wronged me: his own conscience tells him better than any one can, how he has acted. I might and could go on and write a great deal more to you, but this will suffice for now. My husband came from Gold Hill to Reno, if that information will help you in your inquiries. I don't expect to see any goodness from him, all these years of neglect have banished that idea, but to know how he is situated, if unfortunate, well, he is to be pitied, but he may blame himself; if prosperous, he ought to be made to see his duty and maintain his family. Please excuse my long letter and don't get tired; I am sorry, so sorry, I must bother you.

MY SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR wanted me to go to Nevada, but I am afraid to risk it. I don't know anything about out there and not having any sure dependence of maintaining my girl and myself. I am afraid we would suffer. Will you please oblige me by pursuing your enquiries very, very quietly for the present, of course we are allowing that he is in Reno. I would not care to have him alarmed. He might run away some where else. Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain very respectfully yours.

Boston, April 10, 1879.—MR. W. A. WALKER, DEAR SIR:—Please accept my sincere thanks and the thanks of my family, my mother, sister and brothers, for your very prompt, kind, and sympathetic letter. Your description of my husband is accurate, even to the fact of his being an excessive drinker at times, which used to be the case. You could not have described him more accurately than you have. It surprised me beyond measure how very, very quickly you obtained all the information about him. Oh, the perfidy of that man! I knew he was careless and reckless, but I never thought him so depraved as to commit such a crime. We were brought up from the age of twelve years until our marriage, in the same neighborhood. His people and mine were neighbors. I never formed an attachment or liking for anybody else, and this is my return and reward. Again if you knew the circumstances, the many kindnesses of my mother toward him, you would consider no punishment too severe for him. The hypocrite! He used to say in his letters he hoped he could return

MOTHER'S GOODNESS TO HIM, some time. What a return! I agree with you in thinking I am fortunate in being free from him. It is not for him as a man I care; his neglect killed all that long ago; but it is myself and my position that has worried me, and for which I desire to have him punished. I hope I won't tire you with such a lengthy letter, but you wrote me such a kind reply that I feel as if I had a friend in Reno. I am surprised that some one did not inform this lady of his previous marriage, as some of his many friends must have known it. I do not possess a revengeful spirit, but this is a terrible wrong. He has blighted my whole life, and is but just he should be punished. I am sorry for this lady, as you tell me she has married him innocently, but it is a cruel arrangement of things that causes the innocent to suffer with the guilty.

Will you be kind enough to find out (if possible) where and by whom they were married; also what church they attend, what is the pastor's name, and the lady's name. I shall write to the pastor and

HAVE HIM SCANDALIZED. Will you be kind enough to tell me the punishment of the crime of bigamy in Nevada? I mean the punishment of it to its fullest extent.

If it is necessary for me to appear against him, personally, I will make any sacrifice in order to do so. Please write me full particulars and keep him under surveillance until you hear from me again, which won't be over three weeks—possibly a little longer. I hope he won't become aware of my inquiries and try to evade the law. Pray don't think me revengeful, but the little suffering he may endure can not atone for eleven years of mental torture and agony I have endured, whilst he led probably a free and easy life, devoid of care and trouble. I can ill afford to take such a long journey but I will do so willingly to bring him to justice. Thanking you very much for your kindness, I remain, etc.

The Reform Club To-morrow Night.

The following is the programme for the Reform Club soiree to-morrow evening: Recitation, Estell Nash; reading, Miss Dora Graff; instrumental music, Flora Brown; recitation, Louisa Mathews; instrumental music, Josie Barnes; a dialogue for boys, entitled "Rum's work;" "Perkins," George Smith; "Richard," "Abel," Barnett; "first policeman," Gordon Rice; "second policeman," Willie Knox; a trio by three young ladies; instrumental music, Cora Ferguson; recitation, Emma Cutting; reading, Miss Burlingame; recitation, Judge Cossitt; lecture, Senator Powning. The entertainment will be under the direction of Mrs. S. J. Mathews. Dancing will follow as usual.

A Novel Mode of Extraction.

One of Reno's bright little boys was not long ago suffering with an aching tooth. He would not go to a dentist but himself devised an ingenious method of extraction. Procuring a piece of stout twine, he made one end fast to the aching tooth, and the other to a heavy flat-iron. Then he went to an open window, opened his mouth, thrust out his head and threw out the iron. The iron fell about ten feet, and brought up with a jerk that nearly broke the boy's neck, but the tooth didn't come out. That lad prefers to go to the dentist now, when his teeth trouble him.

Overland Passengers.

The following is the list of through overland passengers to pass through Reno this evening on the Pacific express: E. T. Gammon and wife, Chicago; George W. Johnson, J. A. Jamison and family, A. B. Johnson, New York; J. S. Graves, Mrs. Cochran, New Orleans; C. B. Johnson, Washington; Emma Schwan, Leclair, Iowa; Mrs. Leavitt, Graham, two children and nurse, Omaha; J. A. Wakeman, Minneapolis; Lewis June, New York.

Dying of Starvation.

Sam Strieff, of Buena Vista valley, below Unionville, informs the Silver State that there are several hundred head of cattle in the valley below his place that are dying of starvation. They crowded in from all directions this winter and ate up what little feed there was, and are now getting into the mud, from which they are too weak to extricate themselves, and die of starvation.

The Dramatic Club Rehearsing.

The Dramatic Club have fixed upon Friday, Feb. 13, as the date for their next appearance at the Nevada Theatre. They hope to make a hit in "Better than Gold," the drama now in rehearsal. There is talent in the company, and they give thorough study to their respective parts.

The Amistic Club Ready for Action.

The Amistic Club met last evening and decided to have their first dance next Thursday evening, in Kimball's hall. It now has 44 members and is gaining in numbers every day.

The "Gazette" Boxes in Place. Nest wooden boxes, with hinged lids, bearing the word GAZETTE, are now affixed to the fences of town subscribers to this paper. It having already suggested itself to the youthful mind that they are convenient receptacles for notes and love letters, warning is hereby given that carriers have instructions to bring all such miscreants to this office for publication. The Gazette will now send aid to such methods of flirtation. Its boxes have been put up with an eye single to business. The post-office should offer ample facilities for the conveyance of love letters, and if the boys cannot muster stamps for the purpose, let them deposit their amorous epistles in hollow trees or stone walls.

For Deeper Lake.

It would be showing very little respect for the Sabbath to take the Pacific express on Saturday evening, in order to skate on Donner Lake the next day. Yet some of the ungodly propose to do this thing. As the ice there is said to be ten feet thick, they cannot have the fear of drowning before their eyes. Still, the devout may find consolation in the thought that there are holes in the ice for fishing, as the lake is full of trout, and into one of these orifices there is a possibility that the Sabbath breaker may precipitate himself.

The Marriage Last Night.

The marriage of R. F. Hoy to Mrs. Alice Tone was happily celebrated last evening. The Reno brass band turned out and serenaded the couple. The groom took the boys over to the hotel and regaled them with a bountiful supper. The sound of popping corks and the odor of fragrant Havanas proceeding from the GAZETTE office this afternoon let people know that the joyful event was there being duly honored.

Dull in the District Court.

The District Court proceedings at present have no attraction for idlers. Even the jurymen lag behind in their attendance. The case of Kelly vs. Graham & Trainor has been on trial since yesterday. A considerable amount is involved in the suit. No decision in regard to alimony in the Lake case yet.

Pinniger & Queen, thanking their friends and patrons for their liberal patronage the past year, are pleased to be able to announce that they have better facilities than ever for supplying the purest and best of medicines, toilet articles, wines, brandies, and everything kept by first-class drug stores. We make a specialty of compounding physicians' prescriptions in a correct and scientific manner from the purest chemicals. Our medicines are of the best and we will not be undersold by any one.

I Wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen in this vicinity, known to everyone as a most influential citizen, and Christian Minister of the M. E. Church, just this moment stopped in our store to say, "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to Whitt's Consumption Cure." It is having a tremendous sale over our counters and is giving perfect satisfaction in all cases of lung disease, such as nothing else has done. Bourbon, Ind., May 15, 1878. Dr. J. M. Hatcher & Co., Sole Agents for Whitt's Consumption Cure, Reno, Nev.

Caution Notice.

The Reason Why.

How is it, May, that all the kids glow with at the Leap Year party, come from A. Strassburger & Co.'s? Because they have the best fitting gloves, from 2 to 15 buttons, and the loveliest shades in the State, and furthermore, they warrant every pair of gloves they sell, and their prices are very reasonable indeed.
